

The FCC should NOT implement any provision that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I have been on the "NO CALL" list since it's inception and it has reduced my unwanted calls to almost '0' Indiana's law is working and the Federal Gov. should stay out of something that is working. Chuck Andres